

STATE OF KANSAS

PROCLAMATION
BY THE GOVERNOR

TO THE PEOPLE OF KANSAS, GREETINGS:

WHEREAS, Undergraduate research expands the vision and skills of undergraduate students in four-year institutions of higher education across Kansas; and

WHEREAS, it prepares students to critically engage in the complex issues of our state and a rapidly changing world and to seek solutions for the future; and

WHEREAS, fostering active and collaborative learning early in a student's career can lead to the discovery of new knowledge and applications that benefit the lives of many and has the capacity to strengthen the economic prosperity of our state; and

WHEREAS, from undergraduate research in the Breadbasket of America to new energy explorations, Kansas is poised to produce the knowledge and services for the workforce of tomorrow:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Sam Brownback, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF KANSAS, do hereby recognize February 15, 2017, as

Undergraduate Research Day

in Kansas and urge all citizens to recognize this observance.

DONE:

At the Capitol in Topeka under the Great Seal of the State this 13th day of January, A.D. 2017

BY THE GOVERNOR:

Handwritten signature of Sam Brownback, Governor of Kansas.

Handwritten signature of K.W. Fobach, Secretary of State.
Secretary of State

Handwritten signature of the Assistant Secretary of State.
Assistant Secretary of State

