

New Leadership at K-State

Fred Guzek

Faculty Senate President

- Faculty member at K-State Salina since 2003, teaching courses in marketing, professional selling and sales management, management concepts and operations management
- All courses offered with dual delivery, connecting with students face-to-face and electronically
- Developed international business classes providing students opportunities to travel to Mexico, France and Italy

Andy Hurtig

Student Body President

- Senior in accounting and finance from Wichita
- Initiatives have included Lifeline 911, rental inspection program for student housing and open textbook initiative
- Recipient of Kansas State University Foundation Scholarship
- Has served on Student Alumni Board, K-State Athletics Student Advisory Team and K-State Student Union Governing Board

Pam Warren

*University Support Staff
Senate President*

- Senior administrative specialist for Department of Accounting in the College of Business Administration
- Employed at K-State since 2007
- Native Kansan and graduate of Manhattan High School
- Lived on East Coast for nearly 30 years before returning to Kansas