Looking for a 500-level Spanish class in Spring 2020?

SPAN 530 Professional Spanish for Business
MWF 9:30am (Martinez-Diente)
Develops culturally appropriate oral and written communication skills in business-related professions. Specialized content and vocabulary, and experience in professional writing and translation.

SPAN 531 Spanish for Health Professions
TU 2:30-3:45 (Valentín-Rivera)
Develops culturally appropriate oral and written communication skills in health and human services. Specialized content and vocabulary, and experience in professional writing and translation.

SPAN 550 Hispanic Readings and Media
MWF 10:30am (Kanost) or MWF 11:30am (Bender) or MWF 12:30pm (Martinez-Diente)
Communication, critical thinking, and analytical skills applied to Spanish-language literary texts, film, and art. Skill development through conversation, presentations, papers, and creative projects.

Required for minors and majors

SPAN 568 Literature of Spanish America: Testimonial literature
MWF 11:30pm (Garavito)
Analysis of Spanish American texts from the Pre-Columbian period to the present. Focus is on developing an understanding of testimonial literature within its historical, political and social context.

SPAN 565 Cultures of the Spanish-speaking World: SPAIN
MWF 1:30am (Bender)
This course develops critical understanding of the historical, political, economic, social and cultural forces that have shaped Spain from pre-Roman times to the present. Course content centered on History and Art.

NOTE: Span 565 is also offered in Summer 2020 as part of the “Spain Today: Madrid, Pamplona, Barcelona” program with Dr. Bender (May 23-June 25, 2020).

For students planning to participate in the Summer program – ONLY take Span 565 in the Spring semester if you will enroll in the 772-Spain Today course during the summer program. If you plan to enroll in 565 as part of the summer program, you should pick an alternative 500-level class for Spring, as you cannot earn credit for the class twice. Contact Dr. Bender with questions – rmbender@ksu.edu

Need advising help? Email angeli@ksu.edu
TRYING TO DECIDE WHAT TO TAKE AFTER SPAN 420 FOR SPRING 2020?

SPAN 550 Hispanic Readings and Media
MWF 10:30am (Kanost) or 11:30am (Bender)
or MWF 12:30pm (Martinez-Diente)
Communication, critical thinking, and analytical skills applied to Spanish-language literary texts, film, and art. Skill development through conversation, presentations, papers, and creative projects.
Required for minors and majors

SPAN 530 Spanish for Business
MWF 9:30 (Martinez-Diente)
Develops culturally appropriate oral and written communication skills in business-related professions. Specialized content and vocabulary, and experience in professional writing and translation.

SPAN 531 Spanish for Health Professions
TU 2:30-3:45 (Valentín-Rivera)
Develops culturally appropriate oral and written communication skills in health and human services. Specialized content and vocabulary, and experience in professional writing and translation.