

FREN514- Contemporary France

17148, MWF 11:30 a.m.-12:20 p.m. with

Dr. Robert Clark

Offers a survey of the historical forces (history, religion, and language) and contemporary factors (immigration, multiculturalism, and education) that have made the French republic the complex society that it is today. A thorough treatment of these themes is complemented by several films on which students will write a series of reaction papers. Given in French.

Prerequisite: FREN301 (French IV)
