FREN520- Introduction to French Literature (19th Century to the Present)

Section A: 11065, MWF 1.30-2.20 PM Dr. Lavinia Horner

FREN 520 will consist of the reading and discussion of a broad selection of French-language texts from across several different genres: novel, poetry, memoir, etc. Some of the authors that we will study are A. Rimbaud, P. Verlaine, Colette, and F. Guène, and some of the themes that we will discuss focus on forbidden love affairs, social outcasts, depression, sensuality, and teen struggles. Taught in French.
