

MLANG 779 Professional Opportunities in Language
16608, MW 2:30-3:45 with Dr. Kathleen Antonioli

This course is designed to help graduate students with knowledge of a second language develop skills for using and marketing language experience in professional contexts.

- Understand the importance of language in professional contexts
- Create a resumé and a CV that highlight language skills
- Draft a cover letter that emphasizes language
- Practice interview and job search skills
- Improve language skills through using language in professional settings
- Two five-week professional development opportunities
- Create a portfolio highlighting skills and language learned during professional opportunities