Roman Rudnytsky is a concert pianist of Ukrainian background who has been performing around the world for many years. Born in New York and a graduate of the Juilliard School in New York, he has played concerts in 100 countries.

He was a prizewinner in ten international and national piano competitions, including 2nd Prize in the International Leventritt Composition in New York (1965), which was the most prestigious international competition for pianists and violinists in the USA in those years. In addition, he has been soloist with many orchestras around the world, played many concerts and conducted master classes through the auspices of US Embassies in 35 countries (with repeat visits to many), and played recitals on about 70 cruises of Cunard and P&O ships. In addition, he was for many years a university professor of piano and music and is now "Professor Emeritus" of Youngstown State University (OH)--Dana School of Music.

Concerts in November will take place in Alaska and, in 2022, will include such places as Britain, Guam and Saipan, New Zealand (14th tour), and Australia (22nd tour).
