

Guest Artist Recital

“Jewish and Jewish Inspired Music from Polish-Ukrainian Borderland”

September 18, 2022

5:00pm

Kirmser Hall, Kansas State University

Ewa Nidecka, musicologist, composer, pianist

Krzysztof Kostrzewa, composer, musicologist

Maciej Gallas, tenor

Magdalena Prejsnar-Wąsacz, pianist

PROGRAM

Introduction: “Famous and Forgotten Jewish Musicians of Galicia”

Ewa Nidecka, author, “Jews in the Musical Culture of Galicia”, vol. 1, Rzeszów 2021

“Three Songs to Poetry by Paul Celan” (2020)..... Krzysztof Kostrzewa
(b.1961)

1. “Psalm”
2. “Andenken”
3. “Die Pole”

“The Flowers of Time. Two Songs to Poetry by Paul Celan” (2021)

1. “Espenbaum”
2. “Tenebrae”

“Nächtlich geschürzt” to Poetry by Paul Celan (2022) (World Premiere)

“Matka” to Poetry Julian Tuwim (2022) (World Premiere)

“Nie obiecuję ci prawie nic” to Poetry by B. Leśmian (2022) (World Premiere)..... Ewa Nidecka
(b.1962)

Paraphrases on Jewish Folksongs for solo piano Juliusz Wolfsohn
(1880-1944)

1. “Schluf Main Tochter”
2. “Lomir Sech Iberbeten”
3. “Oi Avrom” (World Premiere)

KANSAS STATE
UNIVERSITY

School of Music,
Theatre, and Dance

Maciej Gallas – tenor, is a graduate of the Music Academy in Kraków, Poland (1998) where he was a student of Christian Ellsner and Adam Szybowski. He had his operatic debut in 1997, performing the part of Tamino in The Magic Flute by W. A. Mozart at Kraków Opera. He is particularly interested baroque works, performed with the accompaniment of ensembles of historical instruments, as well as symphonic and chamber orchestras. He has worked with such ensembles as the Concerto Polacco (Warsaw), Arte Dei Suonatori (Poznań), Cappella Cracoviensis (Kraków), Camerata Silesia (Katowice) as well as various philharmonic orchestras including those from Białystok, Częstochowa, Katowice, Kraków, Opole, Rzeszów, Wałbrzych, Zabrze. He took part in international festivals like Wratistlavia Cantans, Muzyka w Starym Krakowie, Jan Kiepura Festival in Krynica, and the Old Music Festival in Kraków. He recorded numerous albums, as well as TV and radio recordings. He collaborates with Kraków Opera, Chamber Opera in Kraków, and Śląska in Katowice. He is music faculty member at Grzegorz Fitelberg Music School in Chorzów and in Władysław Żeleński Music School in Kraków. Amongst his pupils there are laureates of many competitions. He is also a lecturer at the Music Department of Rzeszów University and the Voice and Acting Department of the Music Academy in Kraków. In 2014 he was awarded a post-doctoral degree in musical arts from the Karol Szymanowski Music Academy in Katowice. In 2022 the President of the Republic of Poland awarded him the title of “Professor of Arts”.

Krzysztof Kostrzewa, born in 1961, graduated from Theory of Music and Composition Department at the Academy of Music in Krakow, Poland, in the class of Bogusław Schaeffer. In the years 1994–96 he continued his studies at Theory of Music at Staatliche Hochschule für Musik und Darstellende Kunst in Stuttgart, Germany, under the guidance of M. Hermann. In the years 1989–2000 he took part in courses of electroacoustic music in Krakow, Amsterdam, Schwaz, Stuttgart and Helsinki. Between 1988 and 1994 he was a teacher of music theory at the Academy of Music in Krakow. Since 1988, he has held theoretical classes at the Music Institute of the University of Rzeszów. He is a composer of 79 works, mainly solo and chamber ones, including Concerto for bass clarinet and orchestra, Missa for alt solo, mixed choir and orchestra, Magnificat for soprano, tenor, choir and orchestra, I Symphony and Przymus światła (Compulsion of Light) for percussion, flutes and orchestra. His main interests are instrumental and electroacoustic music. In his publications, he focuses on serial music and Polish contemporary music. He published several articles on serial music in “Zeszyty Naukowe Uniwersytetu Rzeszowskiego” and “Ruch Muzyczny” (2010, Nos. 6 and 7). Currently, he devotes his time to research of the musical output of Bogusław Schaeffer, Barbara Buczek and Helmut Lachenmann.

Music theorist and composer Ewa Nidecka, is a graduate of the Academy of Music in Kraków. Since 1988, she has been a faculty member at the Institute of Music of the University of Rzeszów, where she currently serves as Professor. Her primary research interests focus on the musical culture of the city of Lviv (German: Lemberg, Polish: Lwów), which resulted first in a doctoral thesis The Work of Polish Composers in Lviv and the Ukrainian Composer School. Her subsequent research includes works of Polish composers of the 20th and 21st centuries, music created in the Experimental Studio of the Polish Radio in Warsaw, and the cultural of Galician Jews. Her most important research achievements include: “Polish Radio Experimental Studio - Work Unknown, Unexplored, Forgotten” – a part of the project “White spots - music and dance” of the Institute of Music and Dance in Warsaw (2019-2020) and “Jews in the Musical Culture of Galicia”, a project of the Ministry of Science and Higher Education “Excellent Science” (2020-2022), which received the patronage of the POLIN Museum of the History of Polish Jews.

Ewa Nidecka participated in many international scientific conferences (Poland, Ukraine, Slovakia, Czech Republic, Italy), and lectured in Czechia, Slovakia, Hungary, Romania, Italy, Spain, Portugal, Germany and Turkey. She is the author of nearly 70 publications, 5 monographs, which can be found in many prestigious libraries, incl. the US Library of Congress and the universities of: Oxford, Berkeley, Harvard, Yale, Kansas, Stanford, Toronto etc. She is also the author of songs, electro-acoustic compositions, for the piano, as well as soprano saxophone.

Magdalena Prejsnar graduated from the Fryderyk Chopin Academy of Music in Warsaw in the class of Bronisława Kawalla and chamber music class of Maja Nosowska. She perfected her piano skills at the International Master Courses in Duszniki-Zdrój, Freiburg, Zurich and New York, where she collaborated with outstanding professors: Halina Czerny-Stefańska, Elza Kolodin and Rudolf Buchbinder. She regularly gives concerts, records for the radio and television and conducts music workshops in the country and abroad (Canada, Czech Republik, Germany, Greit Britain, Hungary, Slovakia, Spain, Switzerland, Ukraine and USA). In 2009 she recorded a CD Piano Preludes at the Witold Lutosławski Concert Studio of Polish Radio in Warsaw, which was released by the record company DUX. The CD features piano preludes of 20th-century Polish composers, such as: Wojciech Kilar, Kazimierz Serocki, Zygmunt Mycielski, Henryk Mikołaj Górecki, Miłosz Magin, Krzysztof Knittel and Paweł Mykietyn. Her recordings include following albums : The Very Best of Kilar (DUX, 2012), The Very Best of Górecki (DUX, 2015) and Chopin Piano Music (DUX 2020). Together with Sławomir Dobrzański she recorded three works for two pianos composed by Wiktor Łabuński (Wiktor Łabuński Complete Piano Works, Acte Préalable, 2019). In 2001, Magdalena Prejsnar earned a doctoral degree in musical arts at her alma mater. In 2012 she was awarded a post-Doctorate Degree in Musical Arts at the Karol Szymanowski Academy of Music in Katowice. Currently, she serves as University Professor at the Institute of Music of the University of Rzeszów.

KANSAS STATE
UNIVERSITY

School of Music,
Theatre, and Dance