

Kansas State University Orchestra Graduate Teaching Assistantship Fall 2020

APPLICATION DEADLINE

For priority consideration of the graduate teaching assistantship with the Kansas State University Symphony Orchestra, applicants should have their Graduate School and School of Music applications complete (including the audition) by Feb. 1, 2020. If the position is still available after Feb. 1, completed applications will be accepted through April 15, 2020.

ONLINE APPLICATION AND MORE INFORMATION

This position is a graduate teaching assistantship with a .5 FTE, equating to 20 hours of work per week.

<https://www.k-state.edu/mtd/music/graduate/>

AWARD

- $12,000 stipend per year
- Tuition Waiver equaling up to 10 Graduate credit hours per semester
- Possibility of additional $3000 scholarship if accepted and contract signed by Feb. 1, 2020.

REQUIREMENTS

- Bachelor of Music or Music Education degree (string emphasis preferred)
- Exceptional performance and/or teaching ability
- Admission to Graduate Studies of Kansas State University
- Recipient will be a graduate student pursuing one of the following degrees:
 - Master of Music (Applied Study)
 - Master of Music Education

DUTIES

- Assisting Orchestra Conductor as assigned
- Weekly rehearsals, including Orchestra Sectional coachings
- Event performances
- Remaining hours to be chosen according to candidate strengths and department needs. Possible assignments could include:
 - o Studio Teaching
 - o Orchestra Conducting
 - o Assisting with String Education Curriculum
 - o Recruiting
 - o Chamber music performances representing the KSU string division on and off campus
 - o Assisting graduate faculty, teaching courses as assigned
 - o Assisting with the recording of faculty recitals

K-STATE ORCHESTRA WEBSITE
AND FACULTY BIOGRAPHIES:

k-state.edu/mtd/music/orchestra