

Cargill Global Scholars

Purpose To offer financial support and leadership development to students studying in fields related to Cargill and its global involvement in the world of food, agriculture, and risk management.

Award

Tenable Supports study at Kansas State.

Number & Amount Ten scholarships for U.S. students. Awards also given to students in Brazil, China, India, Indonesia and Russia. $2,500 per year for two years for scholarship supports. Funding for both domestic and international leadership seminars. Scholars also receive a Cargill mentor to assist with goals.

Duration Two years.

Eligibility

Who Must attend an eligible partner university (Kansas State University is one). U.S. citizen. Interest in a Cargill specialization area: All agricultural fields, Business Administration, Computer Science, Economics, Engineering, Food Science, International Relations, Political Science, and Public Policy.

When Apply during the first or second year of undergraduate study.

Selection Criteria Evidence of high academic performance and leadership potential. Special consideration given to students with financial need, affiliation with underrepresented groups, and specialization in above mentioned fields.

Campus Deadline None.

Deadline March 5.

Application Apply online. Application form. Two essays (500 words and 300 words respectively). Family and financial information. Transcripts. Résumé.

Contact Beth Powers works with Cargill Global Scholar applicants. Contact her at 207 Leadership Studies or (785) 532-3422.

Other Cargill Global Scholars become a member of the alumni community.

This program is relatively new (first class selected for 2013-14).

Read more at www.cargillglobalscholars.com.

9/29/2022