Award

Tenable
There are nine different sites in the United Kingdom, each with a distinct thematic focus. Applicants must choose one and direct their application to that site.

Number & Amount
Number varies by site (ranges from 3 to 10). Fully funded: airfare both ways, applicable tuition and fees, room and board, and in some instances, a small daily allowance.

Duration
Three to six weeks, depending on the specific site.

Eligibility

Who
U.S. citizen with passport. At least 18 years old before departure date. 3.7 GPA. Preference given to individuals who have not traveled out of country.

When
Undergraduates with two or more years left of study at the time of application (typically freshmen and sophomores).

Selection Criteria
From the website: We are interested in evidence of leadership qualities and initiative, academic ability, character, adaptability and ambassadorial quality, as well as an interest in the UK and its culture.

Campus Deadline
None.

Deadline
Depends on program choice. Typically late February or early March.

Application
Completed online application form, including a prompt-based essay, a personal statement and several short answer questions, two reference letters, and official transcript.

Contact
Jim Hohenbary can assist you regarding the Fulbright Summer Institute. Contact him at 215 Fairchild or (785) 532-3422.

Other
Applying for the summer institute does NOT make an individual ineligible for the Fulbright U.S. Student Grant (for graduating seniors, recent alumni and graduate students).
