

Rotary Peace Fellowship

Purpose	To promote peace/conflict resolution by supporting related research and study for future leaders. To foster the diffusion of knowledge about peace/conflict issues.
Award
Tenable	At one of six Rotary Centers for International Studies. While curriculum is unique to each school, all focus on peace studies, international relations, conflict resolution or related disciplines. Five options for Masters and one for Professional Development Certificate (PDC): International Christian University – Japan University of Bradford – United Kingdom Uppsala University – Sweden Duke / UNC Chapel Hill – United States Chulalongkorn University – Thailand (PDC)
Number & Amount	Ten awards allotted to each Rotary Center for graduate study. Fully funds tuition and living expenses. 25 awards per session for PDC (two sessions per year). Practical internship/field study experience are also funded.
Duration	15 to 24 months. Scholars expected to earn degree in that time. Start date will vary between schools. PDC is three months, including 2-3 weeks of field study.
Eligibility
Who	Citizens of any country where Rotary operates. Any major that fits relevant career goals. Language skills for host country AND proficiency in any second language. Three years of relevant work experience (paid or unpaid). Five years for PDC.
When	Whenever you will be able to present a completed undergraduate degree and three years of credible service/work experience related to your aspirations.
Selection Criteria	Strong leadership skills. Record of relevant service/experience. Career goals connect to peace/conflict resolution. There are club and district interviews. Must have a second language, even if attending an English-speaking destination.
Campus Deadline	None.
Deadline	Set by local Rotary clubs/districts. Club timetables vary but most of the process generally happens in the spring semester. Clubs nominate to districts. Districts nominate to Rotary International (who then selects the winners).
Application	Application form. Written statement. Resume. Transcripts. Language proficiency form. Three references (with form). Essays translated into second language if applicable. Club/district forms. Test scores if applicable.
Contact	Jim Hohenbary can help you make contact with Rotarians and coordinate the process. Find him at 204 Leadership Studies or (785) 532-3422.
Other	Go to www.rotary.org/myrotary/en/get-involved/exchange-ideas/peace-fellowships . The following are NOT eligible to apply: Rotarians or their spouse, lineal descendants of living Rotarians, honorary Rotarians or Rotary employees.

10/7/2021