Fall into Fulbright Informational Series

The Fulbright U.S. Scholar Outreach & Recruitment Team is excited to offer Fall into Fulbright, six pre-recorded virtual information sessions covering the basics of the Fulbright U.S. Scholar Program this Fall. Developed using feedback and questions from recent webinars and office hours, each session will be approximately 15 minutes and available to watch in our Webinar Archive beginning in November.

We will also host live premieres of each recording on Zoom, followed by approximately 15 minutes of live Q&A. Registration is only required for those who wish to join a live viewing. Starting in early November, anyone can watch the recordings at any time by visiting the Webinar Archive, so please consider sharing it with colleagues and anyone interested in learning the basics about the Fulbright U.S. Scholar Program. If you can't attend the live premiere and have a question, you can always reach out to the Outreach & Recruitment team at Scholars@iie.org or via the regional email addresses provided on each award webpage.

Wondering if these sessions could be for you?
These sessions are open to everyone, but they are especially helpful for those who are new to the Fulbright U.S. Scholar Program or are looking to gain more in-depth knowledge of the topics being offered.

Curious if this opportunity could be for you? Consider these questions:

- Wondering if you're eligible?
- Want to hear what it's really like to be a Fulbrighter?
- Curious about what project activities are supported by Fulbright?
- Thinking about applying in the next 1-2 years?
- Have questions about what a Fulbright application includes?
- Want to get familiar with Fulbright U.S. Scholar resources?

If the answer was yes to any of these questions, please join us for a live premiere, or visit the Webinar Archive starting in November to check out the session recordings. All live sessions will run from 2:00-2:30 PM eastern time.
