College/Program	Year of Review	CIP Code	Degree Level	Explanatory Category	Recommendation*	1 sentence update on status of program
Special Education	2011	13.1001	D	MPI	Enhance	The department developed strategies to improve recruitment and completion. They have improved enrollment with 5 and 6 PhD students in Fall 2014 and 2015 respectively. This has moved their five year average enrollment to 4. The degrees conferred is still averaging 0 but with this increase in enrollment, the completions should meet the KBOR minima in the next 4-5 years. The program will be formerly reviewed in 2020.
Human Nutrition	2011	19.0504	M	GFP, RSF	Continue	Graduate feeder program and heavy research emphasis.
Foodservice and Hospitality Mgmt/ Dietetics Admin	2011	52.0901	M	MPI	Enhance	The College moved the dietetics program to the Department of Human Nutrition with strategies to focus solely on Hospitality Management. Also, the department is in the process of hiring a new department head. Program will be formerly reviewed in 2020.
Secondary Major In Latin American Studies	2012	05.0107	B	ICP	Continue	Interdisciplinary program.
Women's Studies	2012	05.0207	B	ICP	Enhance	Even though the program is interdisciplinary, the program's junior/senior fall enrollment continues to decline with only 15 enrolled for Fall 2015 resulting in a five -year average of 19. Changes to the degree program name to be more inclusive of other marginalized groups, may create more interest for this program. Formal review of this program was just completed in 2012 and will not be reviewed again until 2021

Mass Communication	2012	09.0401	M		Continue	MS enrollment meets the five year average at 21 (Fall 2011 to Fall 2015) and meets the criteria for degrees conferred.
Humanities	2012	24.0103	B	ICP	Continue	Interdisciplinary program.
Physical Sciences	2012	40.0101	B	ICP	Continue	Interdisciplinary program.
Geography	2012	45.0701	M	GFP	Continue	Recent data show enrollments is steady but the PhD program is very strong with 20 students enrolled for Fall 2015. The masters degrees conferred meets KBOR minimum of an average of five. Thus, the MS program should be coded as GFP.
Security Studies	2012	45.0901	M, D		Continue	Both programs are very strong, easily meeting all criteria
