SPRING 2027

POLSC 115

U.S. POLITICS

Dr. Brianne Heidbreder
Mon, Wed, Fri
11:30-12:20pm

Introducing the political principals, institutions, and processes of the U.S. government – and how they affect our lives more often than we realize. From the taxes we pay to the quality of schools we attend; we interact with our government and its politics on an almost daily basis. Learn about the American political system from diverse topics that range from the foundations of our governing structure to the linkage mechanisms that connect us to our government.

This course is part of the Law Track!