SPRING 2027

POLSC 642

International Conflict

DR. ANDREW LONG

TUESDAYS & THURSDAYS

9:30-10:45 AM

Have you ever wanted to know what causes war and peace in international relations? In this course, learn about research techniques that are applied to historical conflicts and present-day events to find these answers. Examine the causes of international conflict and war using the framework of bargaining theory and review some of the factors that influence the chances of conflict and war in global affairs.

THIS COURSE IS PART OF THE GLOBAL POLITICS & SECURITY TRACK AND COUNTS TOWARDS THE PRIMARY TEXTS CERTIFICATE! THIS COURSE ALSO FULFILLS THE COLLEGE OF ARTS & SCIENCES' GLOBAL PERSPECTIVES OVERLAY REQUIREMENT.