Join us to learn about one of the most intriguing and puzzling societies today!

Russia indeed is a multifaceted society, with difficult historical legacies of imperialism, communism, and ever-growing authoritarian and nationalist tendencies. In this course we will study the politics of the region through the lens of geopolitics and IR, history and sociology, art, media, and well beyond.