Bypass the beaten path to career success.

The LEAD program allows you to earn your undergraduate and law degrees in less time without sacrificing educational quality. Start working on your bachelor's degree at Kansas State University in one of these areas:

- College of Arts and Sciences
- College of Agriculture-agricultural economics
- College of Business Administration-management

After three years, you will transfer to the University of Kansas School of Law, where you will complete your K-State bachelor's degree and your KU law degree — in six total years.

Benefits of the LEAD program:
- Jumpstart your career by earning your bachelor's and law degrees in six years.
- Prepare for your legal career through law-related internships and educational activities.
- Take several experiential trips to courts and law offices around the nation.

Competitive admission requirements:
- Be admitted to K-State for the summer or fall term.
- Submit a program application; Feb. 1 is the priority deadline.
- Have a minimum high school 3.5 GPA on a 4.0 unweighted scale.
- Have an ACT score of at least 26, or an SAT of at least 1170.
