

Undergraduate Concentration in Clinical Psychology Program of Study

If you have any interest in the Undergraduate Concentration in Clinical Psychology, please fill in as much of this program of study as you can. This does not obligate you to take any courses or to continue in the clinical concentration. You can make changes in this program of study as you progress through the curriculum.

Please leave this program of study in the Psychology Department Office, Bluemont Hall, Room 492 after completing Basic Concepts in Clinical Psychology. Students must complete Basic Concepts in Clinical Psychology before enrolling in the Laboratory in Clinical Concepts. If you have any questions concerning the Undergraduate Concentration in Clinical Psychology, consult with Dr. Barnett.

Name _____

Local Address _____

Local Phone No. _____

Class (check one)

Freshman

Sophomore

1st Sem.Jr.

2nd Sem.Jr.

1st Sem.Sr.

2nd Sem.Sr.

Expected date of graduation_____

For each of the following courses which you have completed, indicate the grade you received. For those courses you have not taken, but intend to, indicate the dates you plan to enroll in them.

A. Courses in Major

_____ General Psychology

_____ Experimental Methods

_____ Statistics

_____ Cognitive Psychology

_____ Princ. of Learning

_____ Fund. of Percp. & Sens.

_____ Psychobiology

_____ Found. of Social Behv.

_____ Psych. of Personality

B. Psych. Courses in Undergraduate Concentration in Clinical Psychology

Clinical

_____ Psychological Testing

- _____ Abnormal Psychology
- _____ Basic Concepts in Clinical Psych.
- _____ Laboratory in Clinical Concepts
- _____ Field Placement

C. Other Psychology Courses

D. Undergraduate Concentration in Clinical Psychology Electives

Courses in Education, Sociology, etc. (Note: Students completing this form for the first time may want to leave this section blank until they have a chance to talk with an Undergraduate Clinical Concentration advisor.)

- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____

Preferred period of field placement (spring, summer, fall) _____

Preferred general location of field placement _____

Preferred type of field placement (hospital, community agency, working with people with intellectual or developmental disabilities, etc.) _____

_____ List
any experience you have had which you feel is relevant to a field placement.

At the present time, how do you plan to use your training in the Undergraduate Clinical Concentration?

1. _____ As a career goal (employment as a Psych. Tech.)
2. _____ As a help in admission to graduate study (clinical, experimental, etc.; please specify _____)
3. _____ As part of my general education.
4. _____ As good experience for a career in another area (business, government, medicine, etc.; please specify) _____
5. _____ Other (please specify)

Other Comments: