Social Work: The Helping Profession

What is social work?

• Social work is a profession for those with a spark of idealism, a belief in social justice and a natural love for working with people.

• Social work is a dynamic, changing, and challenging profession with a vast array of career options and rich opportunities for deep personal satisfaction.

• Professional social workers are experts who help people obtain the resources they need to live with dignity.

• Social workers are also committed to making society more responsive to people’s needs.

• Social work’s historical mission has been helping the disadvantaged, those who have been excluded from participation in the ideal of a just and equitable society.

• Contemporary social workers also assist people from all walks of life, with all kinds of problems, and in all kinds of settings.

• Social work offers a person a career with the chance to work with people who have all kinds of needs.
Where do social workers work?

• Wherever there are people, there are social workers to be found.

• They are in hospitals, working everywhere from the obstetrics unit to intensive care.

• There are social workers in schools, helping children, teachers, and parents cope with a variety of problems.

• They work in mental health clinics and in psychiatric hospitals.

• There are social workers in public agencies, from the employment office to the social services unit.

• Private family service agencies have social workers helping with everything from counseling to finding housing or transportation.

• Social workers are deeply involved in child welfare, providing essential investigative, foster care and adoption services.

• They are increasingly in the work place, helping employees solve personal problems and employers resolve personnel problems.

• There are social workers in universities, teaching and doing research.

• There are social workers helping the aged and helping military personnel and their families.
• They are in private practice, helping people of all ages cope with problems of daily life.

• Social workers are administrators of large government agencies as well as heads of philanthropic organizations.

• Social workers are increasingly elected to public office, from the local town council to the state legislature and even to the U.S. Congress.

• A useful way to see the social worker’s role is as “the professional in the middle.” On one side are the individual families with their concerns; on the other, the community and its resources. The social worker goes back and forth between the two—assessing, understanding, developing relationships, counseling, coordinating, mobilizing, and initiating—helping people build their own lives and helping the community create and deliver the services and supports that many people sometimes need.
Social Work Education

What is the Bachelor’s Degree in Social Work (BSW)?

• The undergraduate major in social work is designed to provide students with an opportunity to develop a broad background in the social and behavioral sciences.

• A common core of concepts, skills, tasks, and activities that are essential to the practice of social work are combined with a liberal arts education.

• The bachelor’s degree in social work is recognized as a beginning level professional degree.

• Students graduating from the social work program at Kansas State University are eligible for licensure as bachelor degree social workers in the State of Kansas and are prepared for entry level, generalist social work practice.

• Students are required to complete a field placement (during their senior year) and this provides students with an opportunity to integrate classroom material within actual practice experience in a professional setting.

• The intervention activities and tasks performed by social workers are derived from a common base of knowledge, values, and skills. Thus, social workers are uniquely qualified to provide resources, services, and opportunities to individuals, groups, families, organizations, and communities.

Accreditation

The Kansas State University Social Work Program is accredited by the Council on Social Work Education (CSWE). This demonstrates to the public and to potential employers that KSU graduates in social work have been educated in accordance with the high standards established by the Council.

How do I declare a major in Social Work?
Students wishing to declare a major in social work may enroll directly in the social work curriculum (SOCWK) in the office of the Dean of Arts and Sciences in Calvin Hall. Formal orientation to the major will occur during students’ individual advising sessions, which are held each semester prior to enrollment.

Admission to the Social Work Practice Sequence:
You are in the social work program at K-State if you declare social work as a major. In order to obtain a degree in social work you must be formally admitted to the Practice Sequence prior to your last three semesters in the program. Students will be considered for admission after submission of all materials, an interview and approval by the faculty.

Requirements for Practice Sequence Admission:
- Students must have taken Social Work 100 and either be enrolled in or have taken Social Work 200, 315 and 510
- Students must have a 2.5 overall GPA and a 3.0 GPA in core Social Work classes.
- Students must have a C or better in all Social Work core classes.
- At least 80 hours – or enough hours to graduate in three semesters after entering the practice sequence
- Have an academic plan worked out with your advisor
- Complete an admissions interview
- And complete an admissions packet that includes:
  - The Admissions Checklist
  - A Personal Statement (instructions posted under admissions materials)
  - Documentation of 20 volunteer hours
  - Two references on form provided
How Do I Go About Getting Admitted to the Practice Sequence?

Admissions application materials are due either the 1st Monday in October or the 1st Monday in March. These materials must be placed in a manila envelope and turned into the main office, Waters 204:

- Admissions check list
- Signed Informed Consent Statement
- Personal Statement
- Completed 20 volunteer hours and documentation form(s)
- Background Disclosure Form
- Two References on Form Provided
- NASW Code of Ethics Form

How Can I Improve My Chances of Getting Admitted to the Practice Sequence?

Students can strengthen their application by doing the following:

- Have a good GPA, both overall and core, at time of application
- Submit a strong personal statement that demonstrates good writing skills.
- Consistently attend and actively participate in your social work courses; if you don’t speak up in class it will be difficult for professors to get to know you and your potential as a social worker
- Actively participate in campus activities

Admissions to the practice sequence may be limited due to university resources.
Continuing in the Social Work Program after Admission

Students’ progress is continually reviewed throughout the practice sequence. This review includes GPA as well as your compliance with the program’s core competencies. The core competencies are required by the Council on Social Work Education. These competencies are listed on the program’s website and are used to continually evaluate your performance throughout the program. You will be evaluated on your potential to fully achieve the program competencies by the end of your social work education.

The Practice Sequence: Other Relevant Information

- All admissions materials are to be assembled by the candidate and submitted to the Admissions Committee by the first Monday in October during the Fall term or by the first Monday in March during the Spring term.
- No student will be allowed to enroll in the practice sequence prior to a formal admissions process.
- Candidates will be notified in writing of the Admission Committee’s decision.

Evaluation of Student for Admission to the Practice Sequence

The “Admissions Committee” is composed of the social work faculty and members of the social work program Community Advisory Committee.

- The committee reviews the application of each candidate.
  - The committee evaluates and examines the content and quality of each student’s written work (personal statement).
  - Written work is evaluated on organization of ideas, spelling, grammar and content.
  - Students’ classroom performance and behavior is evaluated.
  - Reference letters are also evaluated during the admissions process.
o Applicants are evaluated on their performance during the Admissions interview.

o Committee members form an overall impression of the student based on direct experience with the student and reading the personal statement and references.

o After this information is gathered, the committee discusses the student and his/her suitability for admission into the social work program.

o Students are then sent provisional letters of acceptance or are notified that they have not been accepted into the program.

o Students not accepted are invited to discuss their status with the faculty.
What are my obligations after being admitted?

Students who are admitted to the practice sequence must maintain the academic performance requirements as well as the Social Work program’s professional performance standards and conduct themselves in accordance with the requirements of the National Association of Social Workers Code of Ethics to continue.

- Alleged breaches of conduct related to the Code of Ethics will be reviewed by the faculty to determine appropriate action.
  - Your performance in the program will be continually monitored by social work faculty relative to your potential to fully achieve the program’s core competencies by the end of your social work education.
  - Action taken by the faculty may result in dismissal from the social work program.

Social Work Program Dismissal Policy

Students may be dismissed from the Social Work Practice Sequence when any of the following occur:

- Grades of D or F in Social Work courses;
- Student’s GPA falls below the programs standard; (Students must have a 2.5 overall GPA and a 3.0 GPA in core Social Work classes).
- Student fails to adhere to the requirements of the National Association of Social Workers Code of Ethics; https://www.socialworkers.org/About/Ethics/Code-of-Ethics/Code-of-Ethics-English
- Student fails to adhere to the professional performance standards of the program and/or fails to achieve the program’s core competencies required by the Council on Social Work Education
Based upon the faculty’s observation of the student in professional or classroom setting the student is not making sufficient progress to fully achieve the core competencies by the end of the social work degree;

- Knowingly misrepresenting oneself in the admission process. The Social Work Program standards and requirements are listed in Appendices A and G. The NASW Code of Ethics can be found at: https://www.socialworkers.org/About/Ethics/Code-of-Ethics/Code-of-Ethics-English

Please read Professional Performance Standards on Social Work programs home page.

Grade Issues: If a student believes he/she has been graded incorrectly or unfairly they may appeal their course grade. Grade appeals should be addressed through the university grade appeal process. Students will not be permitted to enroll in future social work classes until the appeal process is completed. The undergraduate student grievance procedures are outlined in the Social Work Student Handbook and in the KSU Undergraduate General Catalog.

If students are unsuccessful in a grade appeal and, therefore, fail to meet program academic standards they may ask the faculty to consider granting an exception so that they may continue in the Social Work Program Practice Sequence. In only extraordinary student circumstances will the faculty consider exceptions to the program’s academic (GPA and/or course grade of C or better in Social Work Core classes) standards policy. Students may request that such an exception be made by contacting the Program Coordinator, who will then initiate a meeting with the faculty and student to discuss circumstances and options. Possible outcomes of such an exception may include:

- Retaking the course while staying in the Practice Sequence
- Sitting out of the Practice Sequence while retaking the course
- Retaking the course without having to reapply to the Practice Sequence
• Retaking the course and being required to reapply to the Practice Sequence

If the student fails to meet program academic standards and no exception is granted by the faculty they will be dismissed from the Social Work Practice Sequence.

Professional performance issues: Faculty concerns about students that are related to the program’s Professional Performance Standards, the NASW Code of Ethics and the Core Competencies may be addressed through the Student Review Process: The student review process can be requested by a faculty member who has concerns about student performance and/or behavior inside or outside of the classroom. These issues reflect a lack of adherence with program standards and/or a degree of severity that warrant a formal response by the faculty, in its entirety.

The student review process consists of the following steps:

1) Faculty member(s) brings student concern to the faculty for discussion and consideration for initiation of the Student Review Process.

2) Faculty approves initiation of the Student Review Process.

3) A faculty member agrees to act in the Student Support role. This individual will meet with the student and support them while they construct comments to be made to the faculty and to provide emotional support throughout the process.

4) The Program Coordinator contacts the student and informs them that the Student Review Process has been initiated, the reasons, and the faculty member who will act in the Student Support Role.

5) The student has the option to choose a faculty member to act in the Student Support role with the agreement of that faculty member.
6) A date for the Student Review meeting will be scheduled by the Program Coordinator.

7) The faculty member acting as the Student Supporter will meet with the student.

8) The Student Review meeting will occur. During this meeting, the concerns will be presented, the student will respond, and the faculty will ask questions. The Student Supporter will lend support to the student during the process to assist them with nerves or if they become emotionally overcome.

9) The student will be allowed to have one individual from outside of the program to act as additional support during the Student Review Meeting with faculty. This individual will not participate in the meeting but will be in attendance.

10) The meeting with the student will be limited to sixty minutes. The student and their outside supporter will be excused. The faculty will meet and discuss options for the resolution of the issue(s). During this process, the faculty member serving as the Student Supporter may share information gathered in the meeting with the student that will be relevant to the decision-making process. As a result of this process, the faculty will reach a decision by consensus on the outcome of the Student Review Process based on identified options.

11) The student will be notified by the Program Coordinator of the outcome of the Student Review Process or by the faculty group immediately following their deliberation.

Outcomes of the student review process may include the following:

- Corrective action to assist the student so that he/she may continue in the practice sequence
Or

• Dismissal from the Social Work Practice Sequence

Appeal Process

• Students may appeal any grade in any social work class through the undergraduate Student Grievance Procedures.
• An appeal of a dismissal from the Social Work Practice Sequence based upon the standards described in the Social Work Program Dismissal Policy may also be brought under the undergraduate student grievance procedures, after any course grade appeals have been settled.
• Students may appeal faculty decisions regarding Code of Ethics violations, compliance with program standards and/or grades in individual courses through the undergraduate Student Grievance Procedures. Students may use these procedures to appeal faculty actions that may result in dismissal from the program.

Which Degree: BA or BS?

BS or BA Degree—what’s the difference?

• Within the social work major it is possible to complete either a BA or BS degree.

• The difference between these two degrees is that, in addition to the general education requirements and the major requirements, a BA degree requires 15 hours in a single foreign language, and a BS degree requires a three-hour natural science course with a prerequisite in the same department.

• The program recommends that students consider the development of a second language proficiency, but this is not required. Secondary Majors

The College of Arts and Sciences offers secondary majors in Biological Engineering, Gerontology/Long-term Care Administration Emphasis, International Studies, Latin American Studies, Natural Resources and Environmental Sciences, and American Ethnic studies.

- These secondary majors are designed to be taken concurrently with a primary major such as social work. Secondary majors generally can be completed within the 120 hours required for graduation.
- See the KSU Undergraduate General Catalog for a complete discussion of these options. Dual Majors

- Within the College of Arts and Sciences, it is possible to have more than one major.
  - For instance, it is possible to obtain a BA or BS in social work and sociology, or in social work and psychology.
- It may be difficult to complete such additional majors within 120 hours for BA degree candidates due to the hours of foreign language required.

- Students should consult with a faculty advisor about this possibility.

General Distribution Requirements

- The BA and BS degrees require 120 credit hours for graduation. These hours are accumulated through required courses, major courses, and electives in the basic disciplines: humanities (fine arts, philosophy, western heritage and literary/rhetorical arts), social sciences, natural sciences (life and physical sciences) and international studies overlay.
- Students should be familiar with the General Requirements section for Arts and Sciences in the KSU Undergraduate General Catalog.
- Plans for meeting general requirements should be completed with a program advisor. http://www.k-state.edu/kstate8/ - Some courses that meet general education requirements are more relevant to the social work major than other courses. - Students ultimately have the right to select the courses they wish to take to meet requirements when those courses are not required by the major or specified in the general education section of the KSU Undergraduate General Catalog
Mission Statement

The mission of the Social Work Program at Kansas State University is to graduate competent and ethical social workers.

Program Goals
The fundamental goals of the social work program are to:
• Prepare students for beginning generalist professional social work practice with individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities in a diverse society.
• Provide students with the academic foundation for further study and professional development.
• Use social work values, knowledge, and skills in service to the practicing social work community and the people of Kansas.

Program Core Competencies

Competency 1: Demonstrate Ethical and Professional Behavior
Social Workers:
• make ethical decisions by applying the standards of the NASW Code of Ethics, relevant laws and regulations, models for ethical decision making, ethical conduct of research, and additional codes of ethics as appropriate to context;
• use reflection and self-regulation to manage personal values and maintain professionalism in practice situations;
• demonstrate professional demeanor in behavior; appearance; and oral, written, and electronic communication;
• use technology ethically and appropriately to facilitate practice outcomes; and
• use supervision and consultation to guide professional judgment and behavior.

Competency 2: Engage Diversity and Difference in Practice Social Workers:
• apply and communicate understanding of the importance of diversity and difference in shaping life experiences in practice at the micro, mezzo, and macro levels;
• present themselves as learners and engage clients and constituencies as experts of their own experiences; and
• apply self-awareness and self-regulation to manage the influence of personal biases and values in working with diverse clients and constituencies.

Competency 3: Advance Human Rights and Social, Economic, and Environmental Justice Social Workers:

• apply their understanding of social, economic, and environmental justice to advocate for human rights at the individual and system levels; and
• engage in practices that advance social, economic, and environmental justice.

Competency 4: Engage In Practice-informed Research and Research informed Practice Social Workers:

• use practice experience and theory to inform scientific inquiry and research;
• apply critical thinking to engage in analysis of quantitative and qualitative research methods and research findings; and
• use and translate research evidence to inform and improve practice, policy, and service delivery.

Competency 5: Engage in Policy Practice Social Workers:

• Identify social policy at the local, state, and federal level that impacts well-being, service delivery, and access to social services;
• assess how social welfare and economic policies impact the delivery of and access to social services;
• apply critical thinking to analyze, formulate, and advocate for policies that advance human rights and social, economic, and environmental justice.
Competency 6: Engage with Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities
Social Workers:

- apply knowledge of human behavior and the social environment, person-in-environment, and other multidisciplinary theoretical frameworks to engage with clients and constituencies; and
- use empathy, reflection, and interpersonal skills to effectively engage diverse clients and constituencies.

Competency 7: Assess Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities
Social Workers:

- collect and organize data, and apply critical thinking to interpret information from clients and constituencies;
- apply knowledge of human behavior and the social environment, person-in-environment, and other multidisciplinary theoretical frameworks in the analysis of assessment data from clients and constituencies;
- develop mutually agreed-on intervention goals and objectives based on the critical assessment of strengths, needs, and challenges within clients and constituencies; and
- select appropriate intervention strategies based on the assessment, research knowledge, and values and preferences of clients and constituencies.

Competency 8: Intervene with Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities Social Workers:

- critically choose and implement interventions to achieve practice goals and enhance capacities of clients and constituencies;
- apply knowledge of human behavior and the social environment, person-in-environment, and other multidisciplinary theoretical frameworks in interventions with clients and constituencies;
use inter-professional collaboration as appropriate to achieve beneficial practice outcomes;
• negotiate, mediate, and advocate with and on behalf of diverse clients and constituencies; and
• facilitate effective transitions and endings that advance mutually agreed-on goals.

Competency 9: Evaluate Practice with Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities Social Workers:

• select and use appropriate methods for evaluation of outcomes;
• apply knowledge of human behavior and the social environment, person-in-environment, and other multidisciplinary theoretical frameworks in the evaluation of outcomes;
• critically analyze, monitor, and evaluate intervention and program processes and outcomes; and
• apply evaluation findings to improve practice effectiveness at the micro, mezzo, and macro levels.

Faculty of the KSU Social Work Program will:
1. Contribute to the social work knowledge base through publication and presentation at professional meetings.
2. Participate in the life of the university and local communities.
3. Engage in consultation, evaluation, and development of social and related services in Kansas.

Academic Advising

• Academic advising is taken very seriously by the social work program.
• Students entering the social work major for the first time meet with an academic advisor for orientation to the program and the development of an eight-semester plan.

• The student is assigned to a permanent academic advisor.

• Each social work major is assigned a faculty mentor with whom they may discuss career and other professional issues.

• The program maintains a record of each student and the assigned advisor.

• All advisees are seen by their academic advisor during pre-enrollment periods.

• Students may not obtain permissions to enroll without seeing an advisor.

• Each student’s record contains a plan for completing the degree requirements that is reviewed at each pre-enrollment advising session. This insures that advisees are making satisfactory progress toward the degree and that they are meeting the standards required for graduation with a social work major.

What do I need to do to prepare for my advising appointment?

• Students are expected to sign up for advising during the week before their enrollment date.

• Students are also expected to come to the advising appointment with prospective classes and sections identified. This will speed up the process for all students.

• A list of classes offered each semester may be obtained by looking up the course schedule for the designated semester.
• Be sure to come prepared. If you have questions about which classes you need, check your student record through your DARS report on KSIS.

Transfer Credit
Most credits from community colleges, four-year colleges, and universities are transferable to K-State. Official transcripts are evaluated by the Office of Admissions to determine the hours transferred and the K-State requirements met by those hours. The Dean’s office in the College of Arts and Sciences makes the final determination about which courses fulfill college requirements. Social Work faculties determine which transfer courses are counted toward the major. The Program accepts transfer credit of core curriculum courses only from CSWE accredited social work programs, with one exception. The Program accepts a basic introduction to social work course from any college or university if it can be documented that the course was taught by someone with at least an MSW and if the University accepts the transfer credit.

Credit for Life Experiences
Credit for life experience and/or previous work experience is not accepted to fulfill any of the required course content in the curriculum.

Social Work Curriculum
• The social work major requires a comprehensive set of courses that integrate knowledge, skills, and values to prepare students for entry into the social work profession. These requirements, plus the field placements, are designed to produce individuals, both as citizens and as social work professionals, who function intelligently and responsibly to serve the special needs of the less fortunate in our society.

• A student achieving a BA or BS with a major in social work must complete 48 hours of core courses and 18 hours of related courses.

• In order to graduate with a major in social work, a student must maintain a 3.0 GPA in the core courses; with no core course grade below a “C”) and a 2.5 GPA in all courses taken at KSU.
• There are a number of recommended elective courses available from other programs, departments and colleges. These should be discussed with an academic advisor.

• A minimum of 120 hours are required for graduation with a 2.5 overall GPA, as well as a maintained 3.0 GPA and a “C” or better in the core courses.

• Students are encouraged to take additional courses in the humanities to provide a broader educational experience than may be obtained in the basic curriculum.

• Courses in English, Art, Music and Philosophy are examples of humanities courses. The general catalog provides a comprehensive listing of humanities courses. Students are also encouraged to take at least one additional writing course (such as Intermediate Composition) if their writing skills are not strong.

Course Descriptions

• SOCWK 100: Social Work: The Helping Profession. An introduction to the profession of social work and the various fields of social service by observing, experiencing, and analyzing social work and its place in society. An opportunity for the student to test social work as a possible career choice.

• SOCWK 200: Basic Skills for Working with People. Course develops basic skill components for the helping professions. Students learn fundamentals of interpersonal communication.

• SOCWK 310: Topics in Social Work. Supervised independent study projects. Prerequisite: Consent of the instructor.

• SOCWK 315: Human Behavior in the Social Environment. An introduction to the relationship among biological, social, psychological, and cultural systems as they affect or are affected by human behavior as it relates to the social work model of practice. Emphasis on social systems understanding of human development and behavior.

• SOCWK 320: Dynamics of Working with Older Adults. This course will provide students in all fields a unique foundation upon which successful interaction with older adults is built. Specific communication techniques will be taught along with the knowledge, skills, and values necessary to understand working with, or on the behalf of, older consumers, clients, patients, and family members.

- SOCWK 330: Introduction to Social Work Research. The first of two research courses. An emphasis on social work research methodology. Examines the ethics and processes of research.

- SOCWK 510: Social Welfare. The development and present status of social welfare in meeting changing human needs and the requirements of other parts of our social system; the analysis of present-day philosophy and the functions of social welfare.

- SOCWK 530: Seminar in Applied Social Work Research. Second of two research methods courses. Emphasis on designing and conducting social work research projects appropriate for baccalaureate social work practice. Attention given to research strategies for the evaluation of social work practice.

- SOCWK 550: Field Practicum Preparation. Social work majors take this course in the semester before enrollment in SOCWK 562 Field experience various fields of practice in social work settings and work with the instructor to plan their practicum for the following semester.

- SOCWK 560: Social Work Practice I. Continued development of social work practice skills. The social systems perspective is used to guide the development of a problem-solving methodology with attention to information gathering, assessment, and problem identification. The values of clarification and self-awareness are emphasized and the skills needed for intervention, termination and evaluation are introduced.

- SOCWK 561: Social Work Practice II. Continuation of SOCWK 560 with emphasis on skill development in intervention techniques, and practice evaluation from a social systems perspective. A variety of intervention strategies and techniques are presented with emphasis on the development of a social work frame of reference.

- SOCWK 562: Field Experience. Supervised field experience in community agencies and programs as a practical application of social work knowledge and skills gained from major course work. Emphasis on direct work with clients, whether individuals, groups or communities. Seminars make use of student’s experiences to analyze social work theory and practice.

- SOCWK 564: Social Work Professional Seminar. A review of various theories in the behavioral sciences that influence the practice of social work. Primary focus of the course is on the use of these theories in implementing change in various client systems.

- SOCWK 565: Social Policy Formulation and Analysis. Examination of policies and programs developed to cope with various social problems. Emphasis will be placed on analysis of existing programs and policies and the formulation of alternative policies. Attention will be given to policy change through organizational and legislative action.

- SOCWK 568: Macro Practice and Theory. Continuation of social work practice sequence with focus on skills development for macro-level social work practice and an understanding of macro-systems using the ecological perspective as a framework. Community and organization intervention strategies with emphasis on the development of a social work frame of reference. Focus on institutional racism, institutional discrimination, and the importance of recognizing these functions within society.

- SOCWK 570: Social Work with Groups.
KSU Student Social Work Organization

Students are involved in the development of the curriculum through their participation in the social work organization. In addition, the organization serves as a vehicle for enhancing student-faculty relationships, facilitates social action on issues of concern, provides an opportunity for participating in social activities with peers and enables students to affiliate with regional and national social work student organizations. See the bulletin board outside Waters 252 for announcements of activities, meetings and officers.

Social Work Licensure
Students who expect to work as social workers in the State of Kansas must be licensed (LBSW). A license may be obtained by graduating from a social work program that meets the Behavior Sciences Regulatory Board (BSRB) requirements and by passing the social work licensing examination offered by the BSRB.

Normally, a student should plan to take the examination during the semester in which the field practicum will be completed. It is necessary to pre-register for this exam approximately two months in advance. Check with your faculty advisor if you have any questions.

In all categories, the license must be renewed every two years. During that time, 40 hours of continuing education are required for license renewal. Please refer to the BSRB website for current information about CEU’s, registration for the exam and laws and policies affecting social work licensure.

National Association of Social Workers
Membership in the National Association of Social Workers (NASW) is available to degreed (from accredited schools) social workers and students in accredited schools of social work. Associate membership may be obtained by those working in the field who hold non-social work degrees. Membership includes the Journal of Social Work and other available benefits. Please contact NASW for services and benefits.
Students are required to obtain professional liability insurance coverage prior to beginning practicum. Such coverage is available through a large group policy at a reasonable price to NASW members.

Council on Social Work Education (CSWE)

The Council is the national organization for social work educators in this country. You would be eligible to join under the following circumstances:

- As a BSW student
- As an MSW student
- As a practicum instructor for a school of social work
- As a provider of any kind of in-service training for social workers
- As an administrator in an agent providing practicum instruction or in-service training for social workers
- As a full- or part-time member in an accredited BSW or MSW social work program.

The Council is the policy-making organization for social work education. It is made up of constituent groups (such as students, faculty, deans and directors, practicum instructors, etc.) Each constituency votes for representatives to the House of Delegates and the Board of Directors. It is the CSWE that makes policy guiding the accreditation process. As a member, you receive news about developments in social work education, the Annual Program Meeting and other opportunities for professional development.

Kansas Civil Service

To work for the State of Kansas as a social worker, you must qualify for civil service and hold a social work license. Please refer to the State of Kansas Civil Service website for information about civil service jobs and the application process.
Financial Aid/Student Employment

How to Apply for Financial Assistance

K-State students must pick up their application forms from the Office of Student Financial Assistance (Fairchild 104.) Students are not guaranteed renewal of their aid. All recipients of financial assistance must apply each year in order to be considered for aid. Please refer to the Kansas State Financial Aid website for the most current information about financial resources for students.

When to apply for financial assistance

Please refer to Financial Assistance for more information on the deadlines for financial aid application.

Employment—Student Employment Center (FAIRCHILD 104)-College Work Study

Student work-study opportunities exist throughout campus. Please refer to the Federal Work-Study website for information about eligibility for this program.

Other Employment

Many KSU students are employed under a non-work study program on campus (campus payroll) as well as in the community. If you are employed on campus and receive financial aid, your earnings will be estimated in your award package.

Notice of Nondiscrimination

Kansas State University is committed to nondiscrimination on the basis of race, color, ethnic or national origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, religion, age, ancestry, disability, military status, veteran status, or other non-merit reasons, in admissions, educational programs or activities and employment, including employment of disabled veterans and veterans of the Vietnam Era, as required by applicable laws and regulations. Responsibility for coordination of compliance efforts and receipt of inquiries concerning Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Education
Amendments of 1972, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Age Discrimination Act of 1975, and the Americans With Disabilities Act of 1990, has been delegated to the Office of Institutional Equity, Kansas State University, 103 Edwards Hall, Manhattan, KS 66506-0124, (Phone) 785- 532-6220; (TTY) 785-532-4807.

Plagiarism
Plagiarism, taking someone else’s intellectual work and presenting it as your own, covers unpublished and published sources. Borrowing another’s term paper, including a phrase, sentence or paragraph from someone else’s work without properly citing the source, handing in a paper purchased from an individual or agency, or submitting papers from a living group, club, or organization files are all punishable as plagiarism.

The standard for attribution and acknowledgement of literary indebtedness is set by each discipline. Students should consult with their department or with recognized handbooks in their field if in doubt.

The guidelines apply to faculty and research assistants in their possible use of students’ and colleagues’ research and ideas, as well as to students’ use of source materials and authorities, and student use of other students’ ideas and work.

Please also refer to Plagiarism at Kansas State for more information regarding University regulations.

Other forms of Academic Cheating
Other forms of academic dishonesty subject to penalties include, but are not limited to, consultation of books, library materials, or notes during a test; use of crib sheets or hidden notes during an examination or looking at another student’s test; having a confederate supply of questions or answers from an examination to be given or in progress; having another person stand in on an exam or other graded activity; deliberate falsification of lab results; submission of falsified data; procurement or alteration, without permission, of examinations or other academic exercises; collaborating on projects where collaboration is forbidden; and other forms of academic dishonesty and fraud. Please refer to Other Forms of Academic Cheating for more information regarding University regulations.

Ethics

While the instructor may exercise considerable discretion in assessing penalties for dishonest practices, if in doubt as to the proper course of action the student should report any observed case of plagiarism or cheating. Social work majors are expected to report all such situations to the appropriate course instructor immediately. Social work is a profession governed by a code of ethics which requires a high level of personal responsibility on the part of individual practitioners for insuring the integrity of the profession. Failure to abide by this code of ethics and/or the Honor Code in reporting abuses is a serious matter which will be reviewed by the Social Work Program faculty in determining the appropriateness of the student continuing in the major.

Honor System Mission Statement

The Honor System Honor Council is an organization of students and faculty who seek to preserve the integrity of the Honor Pledge at Kansas State University. It aims to secure justice for any student under suspicion of dishonesty, to vindicate his or her name if innocent and if guilty, to protect the honor and standing of the renaming students by imposing the appropriate sanction as set forth in the By-laws. Students may access more information about the Honor System at http://www.k-state.edu/honor/.
