

Security Studies Program
Andrew G. Long, Director
David Stone, Executive Director

Re: Policy on tuition rates and fees for HIST/POLSC 999

Beginning in the Fall 2012 semester, Kansas State University applied Division of Continuing Education (DCE) tuition and fee rates for all Ft. Leavenworth based students in KSU academic degree programs. Pursuant to this change in tuition and fee rates, Carol Shanklin, Dean of the KSU Graduate School, delegated authority to each academic program to determine the enrollment status, and thus tuition and fee rates, for students registering for dissertation/thesis research credit hours (HIST/POLSC 999, HIST/POLSC 899).

The official policy of the Faculty Committee of the Security Studies program shall be that all non-Manhattan resident students (i.e., students who do not maintain a Manhattan residence) registering for HIST/POLSC 999 and HIST/POLSC 899 should enroll in DCE sections.