The asset information on your original FAFSA was not provided or is incomplete. Due to federal regulations, your asset information is required to complete the federal verification process.

Asset	Student/Spouse (if applicable) As of the day you submitted your FAFSA
Cash, Savings, and Checking Do not include student financial aid
Other Real Estate and Investments Current value minus debt
Business and/or Investment Farms Current value minus debt

Investments include real estate (do not include the home in which you live), rental property (includes a unit within a family home that has its own entrance, kitchen, and bath rented to someone other than a family member), trust funds, UGMA and UTMA accounts, money market funds, mutual funds, certificates of deposit, stocks, stock options, bonds, other securities, installment and land sale contracts (including mortgages held), commodities, etc. Investments also include qualified educational benefits or education savings accounts (e.g., Coverdell savings accounts, 529 college savings plans and the refund value of 529 prepaid tuition plans) accounts owned by you (and/or your spouse).

Investments do not include the home you live in, the value of life insurance, UGMA and UTMA accounts for which you are the custodian, but not the owner, retirement plans (401[k] plans, pension funds, annuities, non-education IRAs, Keogh plans, etc.) or cash, savings, and checking accounts already reported above. Investment value means the current balance or market value of these investments as of the day you submitted your FAFSA. Investment debt means only those debts that are related to the investments.

Business and/or investment farm value includes the market value of land, buildings, machinery, equipment, inventory, etc. Business and/or investment farm debt means only those debts for which the business or investment farm was used as collateral.

Business value does not include the value of a small business if your family owns and controls more than 50 percent of the business and the business has 100 or fewer full-time or full-time equivalent employees. For small business value, your family includes (1) persons directly related to you, such as a parent, sister or cousin, or (2) persons who are or were related to you by marriage, such as a spouse, stepparent or sister-in-law.

Investment farm value does not include the value of a family farm that you (and/or your spouse) live on and operate.
