

SCHOOL TOURS

Celebrate William Shakespeare during the month of February!

Tour the traveling exhibition of the First Folio from the Folger Shakespeare Library to learn more about Shakespeare, his plays, and early book making and explore Hamlet's famous soliloquy "To be or not to be."

Additional activities include an investigation of the plays of Shakespeare through the eyes of artists plus information on Elizabethan London and the Globe Theatre.

Tours are designed for grade 5 and up and last one hour. Curriculum ties to language arts and social studies. Tour groups will practice critical looking, reading and thinking skills.

Tours are free but available only February 5-26, Tuesday-Friday and last one hour. Bus funds are available, provided by donations to the museum.
