AMETH 160: Introduction to American Ethnic Studies Several Sections Online in Summer 2024

This course prepares students to function productively in our multicultural society and provides a deep understanding of America's race relations and how race and ethnic understandings have been shaped across history. We explore Native American, African American, Mexican/Latina/o American, Asian American and white American historical dynamics. We offer you the opportunity to participate in some of the most difficult yet rewarding conversations in today's America.

This course fulfills the "Historical Perspectives" and "Human Diversity within the U.S." K-State 8 requirements
