

GWSS 450: Stories of a Young Girl

Dr. Aikens

Tuesday/Thursday, 2:30-3:45 pm

Literature across many cultures documents the experience of girlhood and female adolescence. Reading these stories will help us to think through the unique experience of growing up female. This course will focus chiefly on Multi-ethnic Literature of the U.S. especially focusing on Latinx, Black, Asian American, Indigenous, Jewish American, and European American stories.
