GWSS 220: Climate Justice

Dr. Padilla-Carroll
Lecture/Hybrid
MW: 10:30-11:20

Want to understand how climate change connects to real-world struggles for justice—and how people are fighting back? This course dives into climate justice movements in the U.S. and around the globe, exploring how race, gender, class, and geography shape both the impacts of climate change and the fight for solutions.
