AMETH 160 : Introduction to American Ethnic Studies

Several Sections Online and In-Person in Spring 2025

This course prepares students to function productively in our multicultural society and provides a deep understanding of America's race relations and how race and ethnic understandings have been shaped across history. We explore Native American, African American, Mexican/Latina/o American, Asian American and white American historical dynamics. We offer you the opportunity to participate in some of the most difficult yet rewarding conversations in today's America.

This course fulfills the "Historical Perspectives" and "Human Diversity within the U.S." K-State 8 requirements
