

Engaging Your Organization from a Social Distance

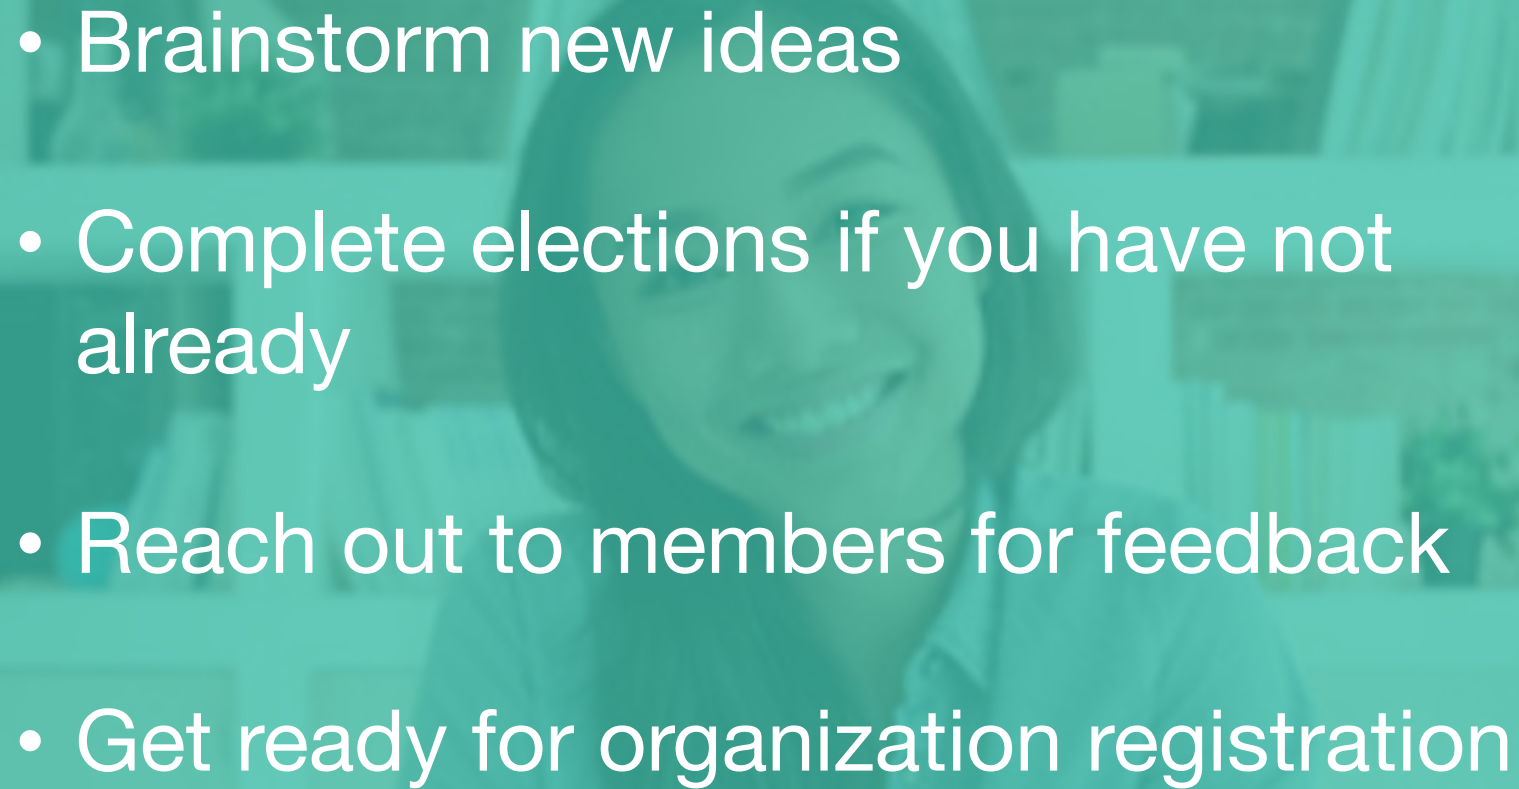

Officer Engagement

Looking Back

- What were your successes?
- Where could you grow?
- What lessons did you learn?
- How can you honor and recognize your members?

-
- Brainstorm new ideas
 - Complete elections if you have not already
 - Reach out to members for feedback
 - Get ready for organization registration

Looking Forward

Get Organized

- Create binders for each officer position
- Clean up your OrgCentral roster

-
- A woman with long dark hair is sitting at a desk, smiling and looking at a laptop. She is wearing a light-colored button-down shirt. The image has a teal overlay. To the right of the image is a dark grey vertical bar containing the title.
- Great time to prepare new officers for their new roles
 - Passing the Torch on Thursday, March 26th at 2:30pm

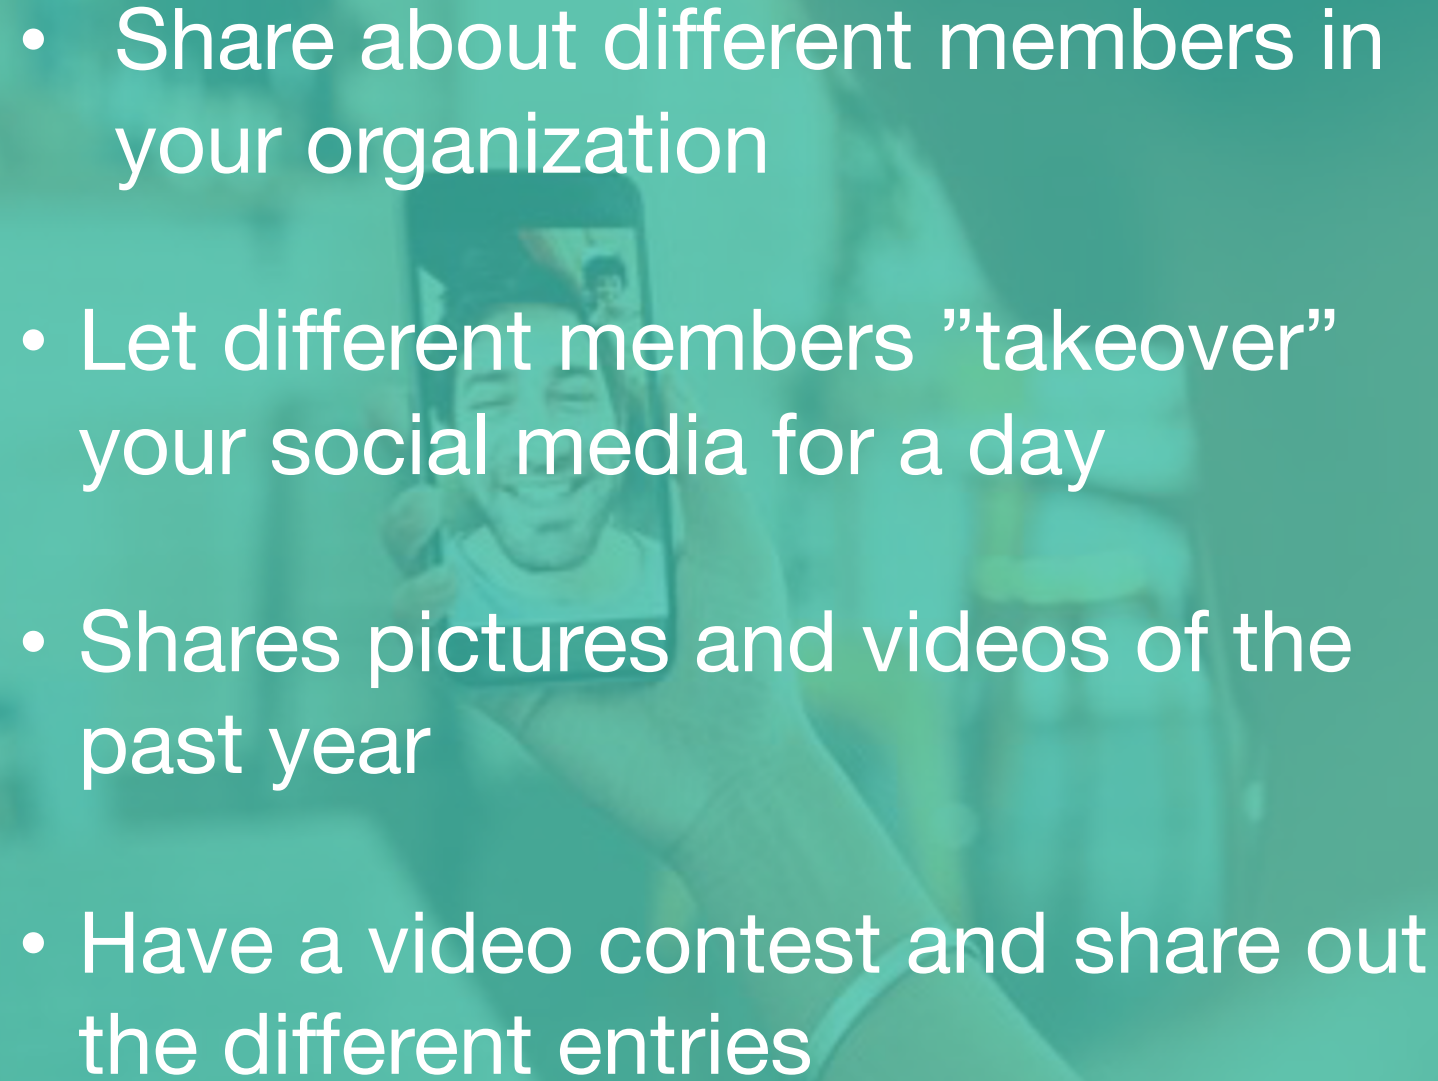

Officer Transitions

The image features a solid teal background. In the center, there is a large, dark grey circle. Inside this circle, the words "Member" and "Engagement" are written in a white, sans-serif font, stacked vertically.

Member Engagement

Virtual Meetings

- Establish norms for your meetings
- Utilize the chat feature
- If possible, use video
- Silence doesn't equal understanding
- Utilize polls
- Mute your mic if you aren't talking
- Be sure people don't walk behind you

-
- Share about different members in your organization
 - Let different members "takeover" your social media for a day
 - Shares pictures and videos of the past year
 - Have a video contest and share out the different entries

Social Media

Have Fun Online Together

- Exercise together i.e. yoga or Zumba

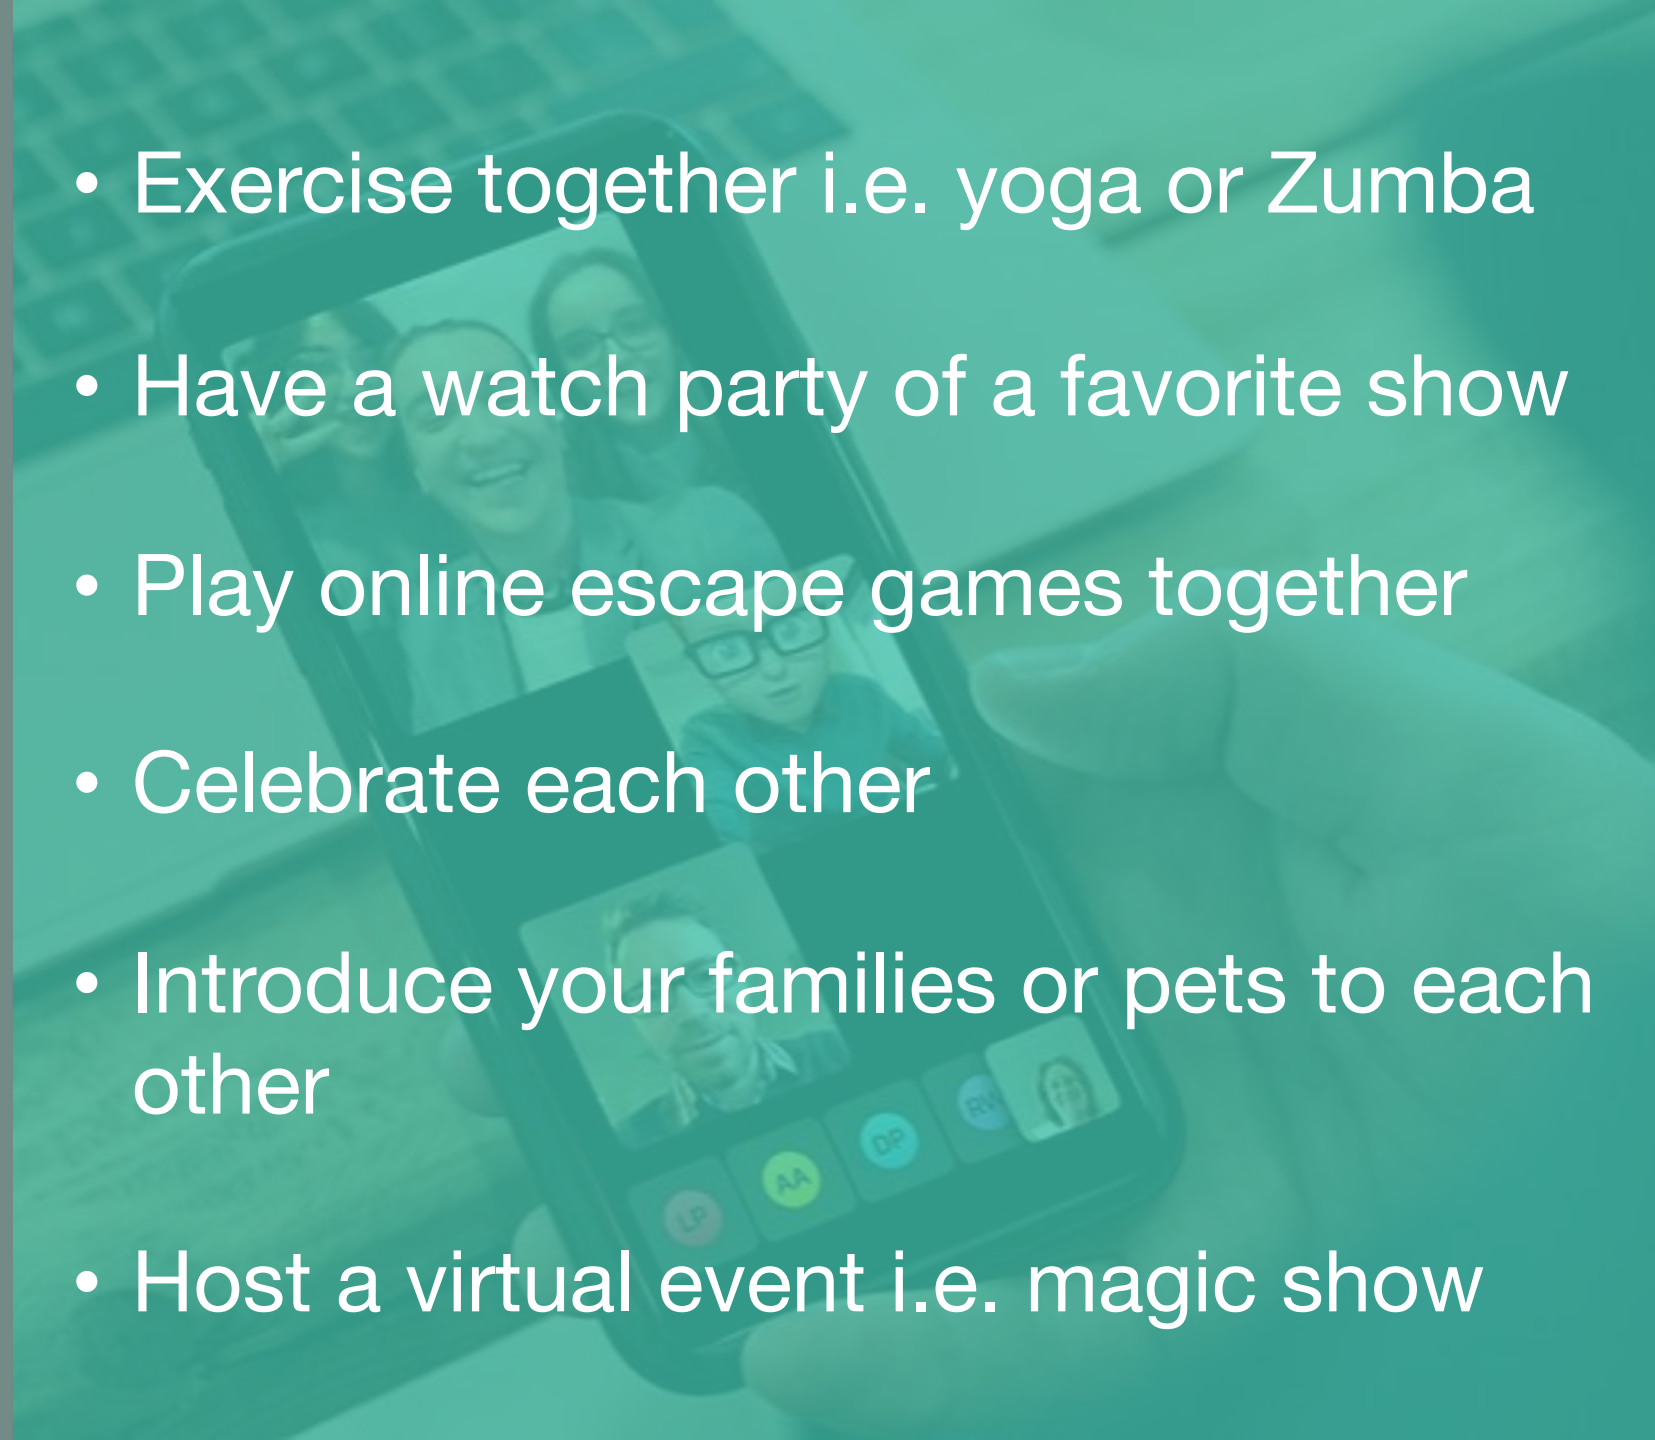

Have Fun
Online
Together

Have Fun Online Together

- Exercise together i.e. yoga or Zumba
- Have a watch party of a favorite show
- Play online escape games together
- Celebrate each other
- Introduce your families or pets to each other
- Host a virtual event i.e. magic show

What Do You Think Your Members Need?

What Ideas Do
You Have?

Contact Us

Sara Heiman

Assistant Director of Leadership
sjheiman@ksu.edu

Christa Dell'Isola

K-State 360 Program Coordinator
christadellisola@ksu.edu