K-State New Faculty Institute
A program for newly-hired faculty members at Kansas State University.

Thursday, February 27, 2020
11:30am-1:00pm, Cottonwood Room in the K-State Student Union
Topic: Understanding the promotion & tenure process
Hear from a panel of K-State faculty who have gone through and understand the promotion and tenure process both as candidates and evaluators. This will be a great opportunity to hear advice and ask questions.

RSVP here by Monday, February 24. A catered lunch will be provided.

Wednesday, March 18, 2020
8:15am-9:30am, Room 201 in the Leadership Studies Building
Topic: Support services for students at K-State
Representatives from the Office of Student Life, Academic Achievement Center, International Student Services and the Counseling Center will share information about the best ways to support students in the classroom, resources they provide, and suggestions on how to best connect students with their resources. As the instructor, you often serve as the person most closely connected to students. This session will provide you strategies and resources for supporting students so they can be successful in the classroom.

RSVP here by Monday, March 16 at noon. Begin your day by joining us for coffee and breakfast, catered by Coco Bolos.

Tuesday, April 21, 2020
11:30am-1:00pm, UMB Theater, Beach Museum of Art
Topic: Time with President Richard Myers
Join us for our final event of the spring semester as we hear from Kansas State University’s president, General Richard Myers. This will be your opportunity to hear from President Myers about progress at K-State and engage with him during a Q&A session. This is an excellent opportunity to help President Myers get to know new faculty and for you to hear about his aspirations for K-State.

RSVP here by Friday, April 17. A catered lunch will be provided.
