

Kansas Golf Course Superintendents Association

Cliff Dipman Internship Award

*Administered & Funded by:
The Kansas Golf Course Superintendents Association (KGCSA)*

Promoting the welfare of the game of golf, the professional image and well-being of individual members, and to unite golf course superintendents in this area.

Application Deadline: March 15, 2018

General Information:

The KGCSA Cliff Dipman Internship Award consists of two $2,000 awards to Kansas State University students working at a golf course whose superintendent is a member of the KGCSA. One will be directed to a student doing an internship at a 9-hole golf course, and one doing an internship at an 18-hole facility.

Applications will be reviewed by the KGCSA Board of Directors. All decisions of the committee will be final. Applicants will be notified of their status by March 30 of the year submitted. All award checks will be made payable to the applicant, the first half at the beginning of the internship and the second half at the end.

Requirements:

- Must already be enrolled in a 4-year undergraduate turfgrass program at Kansas State University.
- Must intend to complete a 3 or 6 month internship at a golf course in the state of Kansas whose superintendent is a member of the KGCSA.
- One award will be available for a 9-hole intern and one for an 18-hole intern.
- Return completed application to: KGCSA Awards Program, 1712 Claflin, 2021 Throckmorton, Manhattan, KS 66506 or cdipman@ksu.edu

About the namesake: Cliff Dipman was the Golf Course Superintendent at Manhattan Country Club for 31 years. He served as a mentor to countless students who have become successful golf course superintendents in Kansas and across the United States. Year after year, Cliff recognized the importance the internship is in complementing academics.
