

Want to be a part of a winning team in a thriving company? Do you like working outside and enjoy making spaces beautiful? Are you enthusiastic, hardworking and motivated? Then a career with Taussig Landscape may be for you! We are always looking for good people to come grow with us. We thrive on a culture of family first, treating everyone with respect and taking care of our own. We are a constantly growing and cutting edge landscape business always working to be the best and do the best. Experience is preferred, but willing to train good people. Check us out on Facebook or on our website at Taussiglandscape.com/employment-opportunities.

Irrigation Supervisor

Responsibilities

- Lead and manage irrigation install crew
- Plan and execute new installs according to industry standards
- Turn on, calibrate and winterize irrigation systems
- Perform irrigation repairs and backflow testing
- Diagnose and estimate repairs
- Maintain irrigation inventory
- Ensure customer satisfaction and quality end products
- Complete and submit paperwork for billing
- Maintain irrigation trucks and equipment
- Maintain company policy and procedures among crew
- Support company goals and values

Candidates must have or be willing to obtain

- 3+ Years' experience in commercial or residential irrigation system install and maintenance
- Backflow certification and irrigation certification preferred
- Supervisory and customer service experience
- Ability to organize and multi task with strong communication skills
- Must be able to work long hours during busy seasons
- Strong desire to learn and grow personally and professionally

Pay and benefits are based on experience and performance but are always competitive. Relocation assistance may be available for the right person.